

Connect to Create

An inspeeration event

Join us at the inspeeration event: Connect to Create! It will be all about uniting and inspiring enthusiasts from research institutes, governments and organizations that are one way or another 'into creativity'!

We will provide inspiring talks, a buzzing networking session, hands-on techniques and the emerging journey towards our brave space, which includes exciting projects like the collective writing of a book on individual creativity techniques and organizing the next European Conference on Creativity & Innovation and more...

When: 2nd November 2021 from 15.00h – 18.00h

Where: Faculty of Industrial Design Engineering, Landbergstraat 15, TU Delft.

The overall program:

15.00: Walk-in + getting ready to find your muse => create to connect

15.30: inspeeration and the need for connecting creativity, by:

- Prof. Bregje van Eekelen: Inventing Creativity
- Milene Goncalves: Connected Creativity
- Willemijn Brouwer: President of the EACI

16.15: Find your muse => connect to create

17.00: In search of your personal preferences for creativity and inspiration

- Katrina Heijne: co-author/editor of '101 ideeën voor ideeën'
