Along with this application form, please include:

(a) An original essay. With IAWA's Scholarship Program, IAWA is making an investment in building the pipeline of female leadership within the aviation industry. We require that you include an original essay that highlights your interests - why you are passionate about aviation, what excites you about your studies, the achievements you are most proud of, what career you are interested in pursuing, the extra-curricular activities you are committed to (e.g. clubs, work, volunteerism), and what this scholarship will mean to you. Your essay must be typed. Handwritten or multimedia productions will not be accepted in lieu of a typed essay.

Your essay MUST also include the following items otherwise it will not be considered:

- 1) Tell us why IAWA's mission and the organization's commitment to Connect, Inspire, and Lead throughout your career are important to you.
2) Explain your leadership experiences and share what you have learned through your leadership experiences.
3) Tell us what you expect to gain from being an IAWA scholarship recipient BEYOND the financial support. (Many of our past scholarship recipients have built their networks that advanced their careers through attending the annual conference.) Please review this video to learn more about past recipients and university partners in their own words: https://youtu.be/3HIPOb4L0qE?si=0pmJhi2llobyNvC1 And hear on our IAWA Podcast (Connect. Inspire. Lead) how important the IAWA Scholarships are from a recipient: https://open.spotify.com/episode/1Qq22EvaWrY8J0NovokY4c

Please do not exceed two pages, font cannot be smaller than 11point.

(b) Your resume or curriculum vitae

- (c) Minimum one letter of recommendation that highlight your interest in aviation and/your leadership experiences
- (d) School transcripts
- (e) Samples of your writing (e.g. term papers, theses, articles) or similar works (such as speeches and videos) that highlight your technical skills and/or who you are should be included. Creativity in the medium used, such as written format (e.g. published works) or other formats (e.g. video), is valued.
- (f) This application form, which must be signed and dated
