4. Effective date

The effective date of this Agreement is at the moment of the signature of the editor(s) as representatives of the Conference Book and the Publisher together, and continue indefinitely unless either party provides 3 months written notice of intent to terminate.

5. Termination

In the event of termination of this Agreement and transfer of the Conference Book contents of the Agreement to a third party, the Publisher will cooperate fully and make all reasonable efforts to provide a smooth transition of all necessary content and metadata published or produced under this Agreement to whatever service provider the editor(s) designates.

6. Royalties

TU Delft OPEN Publishing has a clear policy regarding the remuneration of its authors. As a non-for-profit publisher and service provider, we refrain from any form of royalties for authors. For that reason, there are no financial rewards for authors publishing via TU Delft OPEN Publishing.

7. Processing charges

At the TU Delft OPEN Publishing there are no processing charges and no publication charges for institutional author(s) and editors. Specific requests may be done at a minimum cost. These additional costs will be recovered from the editors budget. This will be done with the approval of the author(s)

8. Claims

You agree to indemnify TU Delft OPEN Publishing against any claim or action alleging facts which, if true, constitute a breach of any of the foregoing warranties or other provisions of this agreement, as well as against any related damages, losses, liabilities, and expenses incurred by TU Delft OPEN Publishing. This indemnity also applies to any photographs, drawings or other illustrations supplied by you in the Conference Book

9. If you desire to publish the Conference Book in print, TU Delft OPEN Publishing will provide a third party. TU Delft OPEN Publishing will not act as a printing partner themselves.

10. This is the entire agreement between editors of the Conference Book and TU Delft OPEN Publishing, and it may be modified only in writing. It will be governed by the laws of the Netherlands and any disputes about it will be settled by the Dutch courts. It will bind and benefit your respective assigns and successors in interest, including your heirs. It will terminate if TU Delft OPEN Publishing does not publish the Conference Book in any medium within one year of the date of your signature.
