

Addendum TER of Master Programmes Industrial Design Engineering 2020-2021

Article 2 – Definition of terms used

Article 2 is supplemented with paragraph 2 and reads as follows:

2. A written or oral examination can also be administered digitally and/or online. Where these Regulations refer to examinations, this also refers to digital and/or online examinations.

Article 5- Admission to the programmes

Article 5 is supplemented with paragraph 8 (conditional admission), which reads:

8. For the 2020-2021 academic year, in the context of the outbreak of COVID-19, students who were enrolled at a Dutch university or HBO (University of Applied Sciences) in the 2019-2020 academic year may be conditionally admitted provided that, on 31 August 2020, they:
  - have a deficit not exceeding 15 ECTS for the Bachelor's degree audit of the Bachelor's programme referred to in this article, or
  - have a deficit not exceeding 15 ECTS for completion of the bridging programme referred to in this article, but
  - have in any event successfully completed at least the following components:
the course IO3900-14 Bachelor Eindproject

If, on 31 August 2021, students have not met the admission requirements referred to in paragraph 1 to 4 of this article, they will be unenrolled from the degree programme.

Article 16a - Registration for written examinations

Article 16a paragraph 1 is supplemented with the following sentence in italics, and reads:

1. Registration to participate in a written examination is compulsory and is done by entering the requested data into Osiris no later than 14 calendar days before the examination. Students receive examination tickets by email as confirmation of their registration. Contrary to the first sentence, for a written examination administered online remotely from the university, a registration period of no later than six calendar days before the examination date applies.

Article 16a is supplemented with paragraphs 6 and 7, which read as follows:

6. Paragraphs 2 and 4 of this article do not apply to a written examination administered online remotely from the university.
7. If unforeseen circumstances or measures, for example as a result of COVID-19, necessitate a change in the form or manner of taking the examination, the original registration period will remain in full force, unless the Dean decides on a different registration period for the benefit of the student.

Article 18 – The form of examination and method of assessment

Article 18 paragraph 1 is supplemented with the sentences in italics below, and reads:

1. (Component) examinations in courses are set as described in the Study Guide. It contains a description of the moments at which and the number of times that examinations can be taken, along with their frequency, without prejudice to the provisions of these regulations concerning written and oral examinations. Unforeseen circumstances or measures, for example resulting from COVID-19, may require deviation from the prescribed form. If an examination is administered using online proctoring, this must take place in accordance with the TU Delft Online Proctored Examination Regulation.

Article 19 - Oral examinations

Article 19 Paragraph 2 is supplemented with the sentence in italics below, and reads:

2. An oral examination is held by at least two examiners. Deviations must be approved by the Board of Examiners. The course coordinator should submit a reasoned request. In the event of unforeseen circumstances or measures, for example as a result of COVID-19, the oral examination can be administered by a single examiner, in which case the oral exam is recorded on sound and image.

Article 30 - Changes to the regulations

A fourth paragraph is added to Article 30. This reads as follows:

4. As a result of unforeseen circumstances or measures, for example as a result of COVID-19, the Dean may decide to deviate from these regulations, including the actual design of the education and any compulsory attendance requirements. This also means that it is possible to deviate from the provisions of the study guide.
