

Getting started with eduXchange

With eduXchange it is easy to choose from more than 200 minors at Leiden University, TU Delft and Erasmus University Rotterdam.

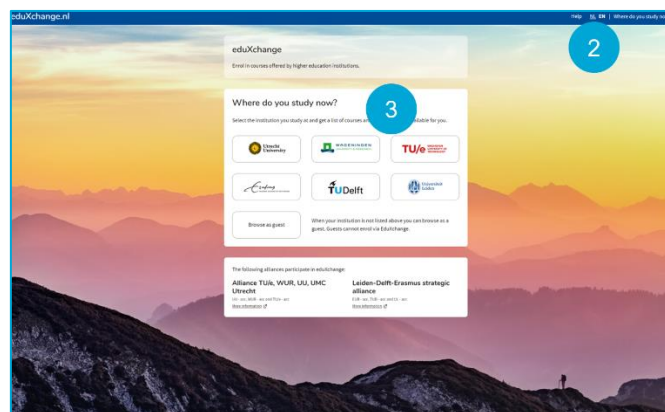

Important!

To register for a minor, you need an eduID.

Request this via <https://www.eduid.nl/en/>

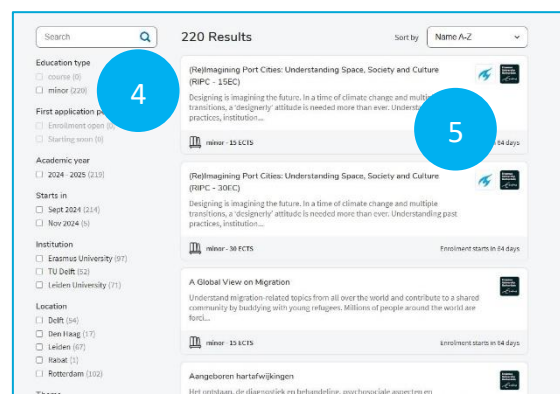

An eduID is autonomous of any educational institution which means you can use it if you want to follow education at several institutions at the same time. You register with your personal email address so that you still have access to your eduID after you finish your degree.

1. Go to <https://www.eduXchange.nl/>

2. In the top right corner select NL for Dutch or EN for English
3. Select your home university

Explore the minors in the catalogue

You will now see a list of minors from Leiden University, TU Delft and Erasmus University Rotterdam.

4. Search for the minor you want to do. Type a keyword in the search field or use the filters on the left
5. Select the minor

(Re)Imagining Port Cities: Understanding Space, Society and Culture

About this minor 6

Designing is imagining the future. In a time of climate change and multiple transitions, a 'designerly' attitude is needed more than ever. Understanding past practices, institutional frameworks and socio-cultural conditions is the basis for new interventions. In this minor, students link research and design from multi-disciplinary, cross-cultural perspectives with a focus on the future of Rotterdam Harbour. Students will develop the skills to identify and address the challenges that port cities are facing now and in the future. Course overview The minor consists of two courses (each a quarter) with lectures and tutorials in the (design) studio. Studiegids

Learning objectives

In this minor you will work on a series of short design and research studies (Q1) and a design project (Q2), and learn to: study (analyze and reflect) the historical, social and cultural context in port-city areas in relation to the present and the future experiment (explore and test) with possible alternative future ideas, supported by the studies take position as designer with regard to the future of port cities by choosing a theme or quality elaborate the theme in a design at different scale levels, such as public space, street furniture and/or an urban vision. Course overview The minor consists of two courses (each a quarter) with lectures and tutorials in the (design) studio. Studiegids
