This is an overview of the University Graduate School (UGS) process; registration, graduation and the PhD Development Cycle. During the PhD programme the PhD candidate and the supervisors have regular meetings. Formal work agreements are recorded on the Development Cycle forms and uploaded in the candidate’s DMA file by the Faculty Graduate School.

Additional information can be found on the Graduate School intranet site. You can also contact your Faculty Graduate School.