

Code of Conduct

Ask an Alum

Delft University of Technology (TU Delft) is pleased to welcome you in Ask an Alum. To help ensure that all TU Delft alumni activities comply with the university's ideals, values, principles and responsibilities the TU Delft Code of Conduct is a leading policy for all participants.

The Code of Conduct of TU Delft exists to help staff members, students and guests to act in line with the values that we find important, even in complex situations. The code sets out what is meant by our core values: Diversity, Integrity, Respect, Engagement, Courage, and Trust (DIRECT). The code also contains the TU Delft Integrity Statement, with the basic guidelines that all are expected to act in accordance with. While many policies included in this document were written for TU Delft staff members, students, guests and TU Delft as an organisation, TU Delft views alumni volunteers as ambassadors of the university and thus the same policies apply.

TU Delft requires each volunteer to read and comply with this Alumni Volunteer Code of Conduct in order to be eligible to participate in TU Delft alumni volunteer activities.

By joining Ask an Alum, participants (both mentors and mentees) agree to this code of conduct. The code only needs to be acknowledged once and is then considered valid for the duration of your participation in the network regardless of role or duration.
